Thicke, born 1977, holds Canadian citizenship through his father and American citizenship through his mother. He currently resides in Vancouver, BC. He started his career as a song writer, then in 2002 released his debut single “When I get You Alone”. His second album “The Evolution of Robin Thicke” became a commercial success in the United States. His 6th album featuring T.I (rapper) and Pharrell, released in March 2013, is “Blurred Lines”, about which Thicke said: “I’ve realized as I’ve gotten older that we all think we’re living either in a black or white world, or on a straight path, but most of us are living right in between those straight lines” and “.. then the last year, my wife and I just really wanted to have fun again, be young again, dance again and go out with our friends, so I wanted to make music that reflected that culture also.”
