Joseph Henry "T Bone" Burnett is an American record producer, musician and songwriter. His first release in 1972 failed to make much of an impact but Burnett got a big career break as a member of Bob Dylan's Rolling Thunder Revue in the mid-70s and then as part of "The Alpha Band". He embarked upon a solo career in 1980 and has released a half dozen or so albums which have met with critical acclaim but have garnered only a cult following. Perhaps his most important contribution to pop music history will prove to be in his role as producer. As the man behind "O Brother, Where Art Thou?" he has also been hailed as the man responsible for the commercial revitalization of bluegrass and folk music.

"It's Not Too Late" is the theme song of the television series "Mr. Mercedes" (after a Stephen King Novel).

It's Not Too Late Lyrics by T Bone Burnett, Declan Macmanus & Bob Newirth

The wind turns like a dagger
The rain falls like a hammer
The sky has grown dark
But it's not too late

The weather crashes down
What's lost cannot be found
The night is closing
But it's not too late

It's not too late
It's not too late
It's not too late
It's not too late
The atmosphere is lethal
But I will fear no evil

The ocean rolls like thunder
The tempest pulls us under
The dogs are howling
But it's not too late

As broken structures rust
False idols turn to dust

All lies in ashes
And it's not too late

It's not too late
It's not too late
It's not too late
It's not too late
The atmosphere is lethal
But I will fear no evil

In the dark before the dawn
The echo of the siren's song
Dies away like a ghost
As the day breaks

It's not too late
It's not too late
It's not too late
It's not too late
The atmosphere is lethal
But I will fear no evil
