Eliza Craig was born in Westminster, London in 1988. She comes from a large family with a successful and varied musical background, her father a stage director, her mother a musical theatre actress not to mention a grandmother who founded a theatre school. She has 8 siblings; her parents split up when she was 4 yrs old; she grew up in Camden Town and attended Channing School For Girls and Westminster Kingsway College. Today, at 23, she is pursuing with determination a career as music writer and singer and doing very well indeed. Breezy, catchy choruses litter her songs, whilst soulful yet witty melodies float through jingly soundscapes in between. It's the perfect soundtrack for the summer. She chose the stage name of Eliza Doolittle, the My Fair Lady character, because it was her nickname as a child.
